March 27, 1991

Honorable Dr. Rodney Williams
Minister of Economic Development and Tourism Industry
Antigua Ministry of Tourism
St. John
Antigua, West Indies

Dear Dr. Williams:

Please accept this letter as acknowledgement of Trombone Associates, Inc. appointment as public relations agency for The Antigua Ministry of Tourism and as confirmation of the basis on which we shall operate in servicing you.

Public Relations Service

Trombone Associates Public Relations agrees to perform the following services including marketing assistance in close cooperation with The Antigua Ministry of Tourism:

- A. Write press releases and/or special articles aimed at the trade and consumer media (newspapers, magazines, radio, television, etc.) in accordance with an action plan mutually agreed upon.
- B. Service press requests for information about Antigua with the assistance and approval of the Client.
- C. Establish and maintain good relations with the press on behalf of the Client for the purpose of placing or stimulating the writing of stories favorable to the Client and supporting the Client's objectives, subject to Client approval; escorting press visits; etc.
- D. Assist the Client with special promotional events both on island and in the U.S. and key international markets. This is to include consumer promotions and travel trade events.
- E. Submit to the Client monthly reports showing media clippings and summarizing the Agency's public relations activities for the Client.

Fees and Expenses

As compensation for the public relations services provided by the agency, The Antigua Ministry of Tourism agrees to pay Trombone Associates Public Relations an annual fee of $96,000, payable in quarterly installments of $24,000, beginning January 1, 1991, due within 10 days of the billing date.

In addition, the Client authorizes the Agency to expand during the 12 months, additional promotional and out-of-pocket expenses at a maximum of $24,000 for such ordinary expenditures as may be necessary for the carrying out of the Client's public relations program, it being understood that these expenditures shall cover items such as the printing and distribution of press release, postage long-distance telephone calls, messenger services, news clipping services, the production of reports, photographs, press kits, press entertainment, necessary staff travel and such other items as may be requested by the Client.

Agency expenditures on behalf of Antigua will be billed at cost when incurred and shall be supported by supplier invoices or receipts verifying the amount involved.

A separate budget will be established for special promotions and events, to be authorized by Client prior to execution of the event.

Staff Service

The services of a management supervisor, account supervisor and assistant, as well as computer facilities, secretarial, clerical and account services will be assigned to the account, all under the direction of the agency P.R. Review Board.

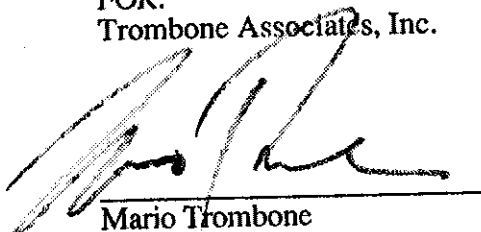

Trombone Associates, Inc. staff members assigned to work on this account will meet as often as necessary with the representatives of Antigua to discuss plans, work in progress, and results. In addition, Trombone Associates, Inc. will submit written reports describing work performed and including a list of press contacts made, and press releases written.

Duration of Agreement

This agreement is effective (retroactively) as of January 1, 1991 and will remain in full force and effect unless cancelled by either party on six months written notice. The fee and programs will be reviewed on an annual basis.

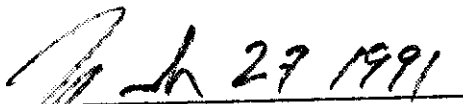

Kindly indicate your acceptance and approval of the terms contained herein by signing and returning the duplicate copy attached hereto.
